Celebrate Centennial Gala Update

On February 5th, the Social Center was converted into an elegant room. One hundred and fifty people dined on a delicious feast prepared by the Culinary Arts students directed by their teacher Lisa Costa. The Jazz Band, Orchestra and Choir entertained the crowd while students acted as servers & student ambassadors. The guest speakers, Mike Farris, Carson Miller and Skylar Bell all gave an interesting perspective on what Centennial means to them. We also had the privilege of listening Billy Herman who was inducted into the Hall of Fame. A silent and dessert auction also took place during the evening. If you attended, thank you. If you didn't, we hope that you will join us next year. The evening raised $6200 which has been distributed to various academic, activities and athletic programs at Centennial.

BAND FUNDRAISER

Come see Image Factory's spring production of William Shakespeare's Twelfth Night!

In this irresistible romantic comedy, you'll be transported to Illyria - a topsy turvy place, where everything is turned upside down and nothing is what it seems. Viola loves Orsino, who thinks he loves Olivia. Olivia thinks she loves Cesario who is really Viola, dressed as a man. Malvolio thinks he is a gentleman, but he is not. The foolish and foppish Sir Andrew thinks he is a fine match for the Lady Olivia, but he is far from it. There is disguise and impersonation at every turn; even the language is turned upside down. Nobody really knows who they are or what they want but it's a ball watching them sort it all out. Come enjoy one of Shakespeare's most popular romantic comedies.

Twelfth Night runs March 9-12 in the Little Theater. Doors 6:30PM / Show 7:00PM
(Extra matinee on Sat. March 12th at 1:00PM)
Admission $6.00 GENERAL / $5.00 STUDENTS AND SENIORS
